

2017 Diocese of the Rocky Mountains Gathering

Notable Changes

This is the first year that we have gathered as a diocese. Some things will remain the same. Some things are new. Here are a few noteworthy differences so you can plan well:

1. Diocese Gathering

This is no longer a clergy retreat. It is for the whole diocese. Everyone who has a home in our diocese has a home at this gathering.

2. Earlier Start

There is a clergy formation seminar the opening day, Monday, February 6th from 1 - 4 pm. This is a much earlier start than the past. Please plan accordingly as clergy gather for this Pre-Gathering Seminar.

3. New Location

We are meeting downtown Colorado Springs at International Anglican Church.

4. Rhythms

The main worship gatherings will be on Monday evening, Tuesday evening, and Wednesday morning with unstructured time on Tuesday afternoon. Please note this when you look at the schedule of events.

We are eager to be together. If you have any questions, please email Rev. Jeff Stone at admin@rockymountainanglican.org.
